in the aftermath of the terror campaign launched on sep tember 11 2001 the united states declared war against global terror it identified the al qaida organization and afghanistan under the taliban regime as the initial targets of the offensive and iraq as the next however aside from the countries included by president bush in the axis of evil iraq iran and north korea a triangle of countries in the red sea region are also potential targets in the war against terror sudan somalia and yemen this assessment is based on the historical record each of these countries has in one form or another provided refuge for islamic terror organizations sudan somalia and yemen are muslim states situated at the periphery of the heart of islam which is generally identified as the arab peninsula egypt and the fertile crescent this area is of strategic significance to both sides of the vital shipping route that connects the arabian sea the indian ocean and the red sea osama bin laden al qaida and members of other radical islamic organizations have found allies and safe havens in both the heart of islam and its periphery the presence of radical islamic entities in the region alongside local problems and conflicts rooted in national ethnic and tribal issues has turned the red sea countries into a nucleus of instability and dissension one that threatens the security and peace of both neighboring and more distant countries shay examines the three countries designated as the red sea terror triangle and explores the ties each maintains with islamic terror as well as the reciprocal links between them understanding these countries is of critical importance since all or some of them may constitute a base for islamic terror organizations in the future this book analyses the layered and complex web of terror financing in kashmir it examines the role of multiple actors including formal and informal state and non state profit and non profit and local and international to delineate the various strands of an intricate financial system it shows how over time these sophisticated networks have largely remained elusive to indian counter terrorism agencies and the need for a specialised and focused effort to understand it drawing on interviews with confidential sources within terror networks as well as inputs and intel from security agencies on the ground the author lays the groundwork for a robust counter terrorism strategy in kashmir this book will be a must read for professionals and researchers in security studies military and strategic studies politics and international relations and south asian studies state terrorism as a concept has largely been operationalised out of terrorism literature when a state uses violence systematically against unarmed victims with the purpose of generating fear and communicating a message to a group beyond the immediate victims this steps outside the bounds of legitimate use of violence the islamic republic of iran iri has engaged in such acts of violence against the baha i community in that country in this study a working model of state terrorism is devised and the following central research question is addressed do the strategy and tactics utilized by the iri and or its proxies against iranian baha is constitute state terrorism this qualitative study adopts a mixed approach design eighteen iranian baha i and non baha i emigrants were purposively sampled and interviewed in depth interview data was triangulated and validated using structured data sources data analysis drew on the systematic combining approach dubois gadde 2002 whereby the original theoretical frame weighed against emergent findings this exploratory study produces empirical evidence to suggest that iran is a terrorist state iranian baha is are subjected to acts and or threats of violence stemming from the state or its surrogates the responsibility to protect norm is not applied to baha is and the iri tries to invoke fear in and beyond the iranian population to isolate and silence baha is state terrorism claims many more victims than insurgent terrorism yet the former concept is seldom mentioned in terrorism studies stohl 2008 the onus is on researchers to identify cases of state terrorists and hold the perpetrators to account at the international level a special case can be made based on the empirical evidence for the creation of an international convention on state terrorism that would hold state governments like the iri responsible for carrying out terroristic acts of violence against segments of their population
